

Fall 2011 Adult Basic Backpacking Course

- * Do you fear some of your scouts are more skilled than you in Backpacking?
- * Do you wish you had more skills and experience in backpacking?
- * Do you have the skills but wonder how to teach the scouts?
- * Are you planning on going to Phimont with the council contingency ?
- * Would you like to learn backpacking skills you could teach the troop?
- * Would you like to have some FUN?

If you answered yes to any of the above questions, then you should attend the Adult Basic Backpacking Course this Fall 2011.

The course is designed for the adult Scouter with little or no backpacking experience. We teach all the subjects you need to get yourself and your troop/crew started in backpacking. This is an enjoyable course and is open to all BSA registered adults. Invite several of others from your troop/crew to take the course together and increase the fun. The training and course materials you receive will be invaluable in helping you and your troop/crew get started on the trail to adventure. You will need a class 1 medical form to participate in the course sessions.

The Course Date are:

- * Thursday, October 13, 2011, 7 - 10 pm @ Quail Hill Scout Reservation
- * Thursday, October 20, 2011 - 7 - 10 pm @ Quail Hill Scout Reservation
- * Saturday - November 5, 2011 - 8 am - 4 pm @ N.J. Equine Clinic
- * Saturday & Sunday, November 12 & 13, 2011 @ Quail Hill Scout Reservation

COST: The cost of the course is $50.00 per participant, which includes all course materials, snacks and food

For additional information, contact the Course Director, Jim Brown @ (732) 308-2998 or evening (732) 780-5472, or email jbrown245@verizon.net

Note: Course pre-registrants will receive a course disc to help them prepare for course
