

Boy Scout Leader Specific Training Spring 2012

Boy Scout Leader Specific Training (BSLST) is the training course that provides the foundation for organizing and running a successful Boy Scout program. It is important for all adult volunteers in the Scouting program to be trained (in fact, mandatory training requirements for all "direct contact" leaders will be phased in by year-end 2011, see below). Every adult that understands the Boy Scout program can help make it effective and fun. Our Scouts deserve quality leadership.
