

Presentation Guidelines

Comprehensive One-Evening Offering of Cub Scout Leader Position-Specific Training

General notes to presenters:

- Download the files with the presentation charts from the MCBSA Training website.
- It may be most efficient to have the files loaded on a laptop computer for projection during the training session.
- It is suggested that you have a printed copy of the notes pages for your guidance in presenting the material.
- Be familiar with the material in all of the sessions, so that you may avoid repetition.
- Personalize the material, but minimize “war stories” to conserve time.

Session	Slides, Time	Guidelines
1 – Introduction to Cub Scouting	31 40 min	Keep this lively and moving. There is a lot of basic material about the program in general, so don't dwell on material covered in other sessions. Key take-away: adults set the example in Cub Scouting. Try to get one of the participants to lead a song, and one a cheer.
2 – Cubmaster and Assistants	14 20 min	Focus on the Cubmaster as the Master of Ceremonies and key program coordinator for the pack. Pack meetings should involve everyone in the pack.
3 – Den Leaders and Assistants	14 20 min	Briefly describe how successful den operation leads to running a successful pack. Emphasize advancement, denners, and den chiefs.
4 – Pack Committee	17 20 min	Focus on the functions that are needed to support the program. Emphasize the need for business support so that CM & DLs can focus on program for the youth.
5 – Conclusion and Recognition	12 15 min	Briefly review the resource slides (they're in the handouts) and the learning objectives. Set the point with the punch-line, then distribute the course completion cards and finish with a “ round of applause. ”
Open Q &amp; A	5 min	(If necessary)
Clean Up &amp; Depart
