

Outdoor Ethics Orientation

Thursday March 21, 2019

7:30 PM – 9:30 PM

Monmouth Council Service Center

The Scouting program values the outdoor experience and strives to develop stewardship of the outdoors. Led by Sandy Byard, our Council Outdoor Ethics Advocate, this orientation course will help Scouts and Scouters to better understand how to care for and share the outdoors.

This course is designed for Scouts and Scouters looking to better understand how the Outdoor Code, Leave No Trace, and Tread Lightly fit together to shape the BSA Land Ethic.

Participants will:

- Learn Techniques and activities to share with your Troop.
- Get qualified to help your Scouts work their way through the Outdoor Ethics Awareness Awards Program.
- Become more effective as your troop's Outdoor Ethics Guide or Advisor.

This course is only $5 per participant.

Sign up online at <http://www.monmouthbsa.org/training-oeo>

Any questions can be directed to Sandy Byard, Course Director at 732-570-7890 or email stbyard@verizon.net