The Trainer’s EDGE” course is the official “Train the Trainer” course for all program levels of the BSA.

This course is designed for all training volunteers. The course focuses on presentation methods and techniques, offers opportunities to practice presentation methods, and incorporates the EDGE concept into the training method.

The cost for the course is $10.00 which covers food and course materials. If this course can not be held in person, we will hold it virtually on the same date.
