WHY SHOULD YOU GO TO WOOD BADGE?

This is your chance to experience Scouting from a Cub Scout's perspective. Would you like to build your skills in communication, conflict management and leadership development? How about a leadership course that rivals many corporate level trainings?

- Develop Stronger Packs
- Gain a deeper understanding of what Scouting is and why we do it
- Learn and experience things that will stay with you in Scouting and the rest of your life
- Make your other groups—like work, volunteer groups, even family—stronger

WHAT IS WOOD BADGE?

Wood Badge training was developed by Baden Powell in 1919 as a way to ensure that the leaders of Scout troops were properly trained. Since then, Wood Badge has been held worldwide, providing advanced leadership training to thousands of Scout leaders.

The Wood Badge training program is a five day, two-weekend long premier leadership program held at Quail Hill Scout Reservation that is comparable to an MBA leadership program for a fraction of the cost.

This is not a Position Specific Leader Training, but is designed for all Cub Scout, Scout BSA, and Venturing leaders. It will provide you with many useful leadership tools to help enable your youth to have the best possible Scouting experience. There is no better time to attend a Wood Badge course and make a difference in your unit, than when you are a Cub Scout Leader.

"It's the second-best decision you'll make in Scouting. The first is getting involved!"

- Doug T.

"By taking Wood Badge as a den leader, I now know about the programs my Scouts will join in the future. I can better prepare them to be Scouts and can help their parents understand why we do the things we do in Cub Scouts"

- Ed D.

ADVANCED LEADERSHIP TRAINING PROGRAM FOR ADULTS

WHY IS THIS TRAINING IMPORTANT?

This training is very important for all Cub Scout leaders. At Wood Badge, you will learn how to be a better Cub Scout leader. The skills you learn at Wood Badge will help your Pack run more efficiently.

This course is for Den Leaders, Cubmasters, Assistant Cubmasters, Pack Committee Members and Parents who want to get more involved with their Pack and the Scouting program.

CUB SCOUT LEADERSHIP SKILLS

Not everyone was a Scout growing up, and a lot of parents have been thrown into their leadership roles. You may not understand how a unit is supposed to work. Reading the manual only goes so far. This program fills in the missing "pages".
